CONQUERGOOD REUNION JULY 9TH TO 11TH 2010, SASKATOON

Champêtre County (population 7) is basically and old west town complete with a two story saloon. Remember to check your guns with the sheriff or you may just end up in the town jail. The reunion starts Friday July 9th in the afternoon with registration, visiting and just getting to know the property. Later Friday evening we will have a big bon fire and story telling. Saturday will be full of fun things with something for every one. Take a hay ride with the Sheriff, play some ball and other games or just take a walk and enjoy the beautiful country side. Try not to get lost in the maze and miss the big Cowboy Supper. Saturday night we will have a big party in the saloon with dancing and more sharing of stories. Sunday we will have breakfast and then the traditional Conquergood Auction to raise funds for the next reunion in 2012. Please donate an item for the auction. Then we will have a family meeting and choose the location and host family for the next reunion. See the website for more details and photos.
